

Allianz Protect

We all have different needs and priorities at different stages of our lives. Some are concerned about leaving a legacy upon their passing, others want to be prepared for the financial impact of medical expenses, and still others want to contribute to the world.

Allianz Protect combines several regular-pay traditional protection products, giving you not just death and accident coverage, but a way to contribute to food sustainability in the Philippines! You get a wide range of protection, the security of a solid financial plan with the flexibility to adapt your plan, and the chance to do good for our country.

What is covered?

Simple and straightforward Insurance protection with guaranteed benefits

Allianz Protect – Death Benefit

If you pass away within the duration of the policy, your beneficiaries get 100% of your policy amount, so you can rest assured they'll be taken care of.

Special Features

Sustainability Protect

Through your investment in Allianz Protect, you'll automatically donate PHP500 a year to the World Wild Life Fund (WWF) Food Shed Farming Enterprise, with no extra outlay. When you pass, you'll leave this worthy charity a donation equal to 25% of your investment.

WWF's Food Shed Farming Enterprise is a compact, protective, regenerative, and diversified food production system that promulgates natural, green farming technologies, as well as relevant financial services and literacy.

WWF is the world's leading conservation organization, working to double net food availability, while Allianz is the world's top sustainable insurer. Allianz Protect brings them, us, and you together, to help with hunger, livelihood, and ecological responsibility. It's #confidenceintomorrow, from all of us, for all of us.

Customize Your Plan

Depending on your lifestyle and career choices, you can sign up for Allianz Protect for five or ten years or up until you are 75 years old. The decision is ultimately up to you.

One year is a great option if you're saving up funds for a bigger investment down the line, while a five-year policy is ideal, if you're looking for solid, medium-term coverage, with the flexibility to adapt or extend your plan later. A ten-year plan is perfect, if you want guaranteed premiums and the relaxed confidence of knowing you and your loved ones are covered, for an entire decade.

You can also choose to pay annually, semi-annually, quarterly, or monthly. Regular-pay policies such as Allianz Protect gives you the flexibility to get high coverage at affordable costs.

AM I ELIGIBLE?

If you're 18 to 65 years old, then YES!

Our Allianz Life Changers™ are your partners in financial planning at every life stage or change. We can help you create a financial security plan that is best suited for your needs and aspirations. We are here to help you assess the most suitable Health & Protection solution based on what is the most important for you.
